Decision _____

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Application of IP Communications Corporation (U-6392-C) d/b/a California IP Communications Corporation, a Texas corporation, to Relinquish Its Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to Provide Limited Facilities-Based and Resold Competitive Local Exchange and Interexchange Services.

Application 02-11-056
(Filed November 26, 2002)

O P I N I O N

IP Communications Corporation (U-6392-C) seeks revocation of its certificate of public convenience and necessity (CPCN) to provide limited facilities-based and resold competitive local exchange and interexchange services to California customers. The revocation was ordered in Resolution T-16753, effective August 21, 2003. By this decision, we close the application for revocation as moot.

This is an uncontested matter in which the decision grants the relief requested. Accordingly, pursuant to PU Code Section 311(g)(2), the 30—day period for public review and comments is being waived.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. IP Communications Corporation was granted its Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity (CPCN) in Decision 00-09-022.
2. Application 02-11-056 was filed on November 26, 2002.

DRAFT

3. A notice of the filing of the application appeared in the Daily Calendar on December 10, 2002.
4. The carrier's CPCN was revoked in Resolution T-16753, effective August 21, 2003.
5. There were no protests to this application.
6. A hearing is not required.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Because the carrier's CPCN has already been revoked, the request is moot.
2. The application should be closed.

IT IS ORDERED that:

1. Application 02-11-056 is closed.

This order is effective today.
